Cliffs of Moher Experience

Bunratty Castle

From the lush rolling hills of the east to the Wild Atlantic Way, there is something special in Clare's landscapes that evokes and nourishes creativity.

Artists, writers, musicians and craft workers have all drawn inspiration here, and it is expressed in the hand-crafted products we present to you.

Keep Clare close to you.

Airmid Natural Handmade Skincare

With the Burren on their doorstep, Airmid has no shortage of inspiration for its luxury soap and skincare products, all designed with nature at the heart. Airmid has upheld one principle as it expanded its range: if it doesn't come from nature, you won't find it in any of their Airmid products. It's that simple. Visit Airmid on Main Street, Ennistymon, where you can test the oils, inhale the amazing scents, shop Irish-made gifts, and experience the essence of nature captured in every product.

Palm Free Soap

Palm Free Irish Soap is a family-run business in County Clare creating luxurious Zero Waste and Plastic Free products. With 26 years of experience, they make beautiful soaps and more. They minimize packaging to save plastic from landfills. As a 100% Vegan Product business, they prioritize peace of mind and seek plant alternatives for customers to enjoy. Producing high-quality items at affordable prices, they use sustainable, traceable ingredients with pride.

The Moher Soap Co.

THE MOHER SOAP CO.
HANDMADE SOAP FOR THE WEST COAST OF IRELAND

In 2007, Raquel traded the forested Spanish fjords of Galicia's Rias Baixas for the windswept vistas of County Clare on Ireland's exposed West Coast. Following her heart, Raquel took the leap and settled in Kilshanny, without a clear plan. Drawing upon her scientific training and her family's background in wholesaling, she dived into the world of soap making. From the humble beginnings of a single bar of soap, she gradually breathed life into what would become The Moher Soap Co., creating a thriving venture from her passion and determination.

Lighthouse 9

A small family-run candle studio based in Co. Clare, on the majestic West Coast of Ireland, where handcrafted soy candles are produced in small batches. In building their brand, they have developed a truly unique product called 'The Story Candle'. Each candle range is accompanied by a story about a person, an event, or a location along Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way. Over the last few years, as part of their extensive research, they have unearthed some incredible stories which they have brought to life through their range of Story Candles.

Wilde Irish Chocolate

Founded over 20 years ago in the wilds of County Clare, Wilde Irish Chocolates is County Clare's original chocolate factory and a must-visit attraction in the heartlands of the County. Creating decadent chocolate luxuries by hand in the tiny village of Tuamgraney, be sure to set aside time to visit this open-plan artisan chocolate manufacturer, where you can witness the chocolate-making process up close.

SIAR Photography

SIAR Photography, founded in 2019 by Gary and Aoife, offers contemporary photography of Ireland. Based in County Clare on the Wild Atlantic Way, they provide original photographs by Gary, emphasizing the Irish landscape and culture. Their mission is to share their unique perspective of Ireland and offer high-quality, affordable products made in Ireland. SIAR Photography was a finalist in the Home category of the Irish Made Awards in 2021 and 2022.
